

Notice from the Criminal Division Magistrates

Due to the increasing positivity rates for COVID-19, the Criminal Division Magistrates are compelled to attempt to reduce the spread of the illness by eliminating non-essential proceedings for the time being. Therefore, if any of your clients who are on bond have Initial Hearings scheduled on Mondays, Wednesdays or Fridays at 10:30 a.m., please consider filing motions to waive those hearings. Further, if any of your clients have hearings scheduled in Revocation Court on Tuesdays or Thursdays, after consulting with your client's probation officer, please consider continuing those hearings by motion, unless a disposition is anticipated. Feel free to contact the Magistrates with your questions or concerns at 755-3304 or 755-3511.

11/13/20